SPAIN

Universidad Europea de Madrid Centro Adscrito de Valencia

The Location:

Valencia, Spain's third largest city, whose founding dates back to 138 B.C., is located on Spain's eastern Mediterranean coast and has population of around one million inhabitants. Famous for its orange groves, avenues lined with palm trees, mild climate, sandy beaches and friendly people, Valencia has conserved many of its ancient customs and traditions. Valencia's major commercial port was once an important link between the peninsula and other Mediterranean countries. Its mild climate is one of the reasons it has become so popular with visitors and the city has become a leading congress and conference venue in Europe. Major multinational corporations such as Ford and IBM have made Valencia an important European business center.

The University

Universidad Europea de Madrid – Centro Adscrito de Valencia is a 15 minute walk from the city center, near the main universities of Valencia and close to the beautiful Viveros Park.

Academics

LHU students studying at UEM take Spanish language courses only. All classes are taught in Spanish. Students are expected to have sufficient proficiency in Spanish (Level B1), both oral and written, in order to succeed in their coursework.
