1. Middle States Self-Study
The Middle States Self-Study is progressing nicely with the eight Working Groups meeting regularly to assess the current state of compliance and the Steering Committee monitoring the progress of the entire process. The overall goal for the fall semester is to begin drafting reports for the Self-Study Document. Intended outcomes include: receive reaffirmation of accreditation, collect useful data and insights to inform strategic planning, and facilitate a self-study process that engages the University community in an inclusive and transparent self-appraisal.

Campus engagement in the entire process is strong with over seventy faculty, staff, and students serving on Working Groups and Steering Committee. Dr. Cori Myers and Mr. William Hanelly are currently serving as co-chairs of the Middle States Self-Study.

2. New academic credentials and partnerships
   a. The Substantive Change Proposal for Middle States to add sub-baccalaureate certificates as a new credential level for which the University is accredited has been submitted. Two certificates have been included in the proposal.
      i. Certificate in Curriculum and Assessment in Early Care and Education: This is a 9-credit certificate that aligns with competencies set out for early care workers by the Pennsylvania Office of Child Development and Early Learning.
      ii. Certificate in Social Media Marketing: Students who earn this certificate will be ready to bring their company up to speed on social media marketing and connect this marketing approach to the company’s ROI.

   b. Certificates and Degrees Under Development include a graduate certificate in Data and Information Visualization; BS in Social Media; BS in Cultural Heritage Management; conversion of the MS in Sport Studies into two free-standing degrees – MS in Sport Psychology and MS in Sport Administration and Management; conversion of the AA in Criminal Justice to an AAS in Criminal Justice with applied concentrations closely linked to entry-level jobs; MS in Criminal Justice Leadership.

   c. The BS in Finance and Risk Management has been reviewed by the Chief Academic Officers and is currently be reviewed at PASSHE under the expedited process.
3. Update on searches and new hires in Academic Affairs and Athletics

Lock Haven University Provost and Executive Vice President, Dr. Donna Wilson, was appointed Pennsylvania’s State System of Higher Education’s (PASSHE) new vice chancellor and chief academic officer. She left Lock Haven University to take the position in mid-October and Dr. Stephen Neun has been appointed to serve as Interim Provost. The search for a permanent replacement is progressing with the goal of having a new Provost appointed by the start of the Spring semester.

The search for an Associate Provost should come to a conclusion very shortly. This is a new position that will report to the Provost and exercise administrative oversight for various initiatives and processes in Academic Affairs, including post-traditional and online learning, regional accreditations, self-studies, new program development, and collaborations within the University and among State System Institutions.

The search of a Director of Nursing has been difficult as the market for nursing faculty and administrators in highly competitive. At the moment the University is working to hire an Acting Director of Nursing Programs.

The Head Women’s Golf Coach has been advertised and finalists will be brought to campus shortly.

4. Library

Stevenson Library is celebrating its 50th birthday this year and will be having a small reception in November.

5. Athletics

At the moment, athletics is transitioning from fall to winter sports. This fall the Men’s and Women’s Cross Country teams competed in the PSAC Championships with Men’s team finishing 2nd and the Women’s team finishing 6th. On the men’s side, Aaron Pfeil (finished 4th) and Luke Vanderhoff, John Davern, Zack Skrabski all earned All-Conference honors by way of finishing in the top-30. On the women’s side Laurel Moyer (finished 3rd), Cadie Kiser (finished 6th) and Karlee Noel earned All-Conference honors. Still on the bubble to make playoffs are Men’s Soccer and Field Hockey.

Other updates include the fact that $15,000 in grants was secured to support Women’s Wrestling’s operating budget this season. Currently there are four competing student athletes. Women’s Tennis just completed their fall season and there are currently eight student athletes on team. Finally, Head Lacrosse Coach Lindsey Reese has been named the 2019 winner of the Kristina Quigley Scholarship.
Division Highlights

Financial Statements

The annual financial audit was completed over the summer and the financial statements will be reviewed by the outside audit firm, CliftonLarsonAllen (CLA) at the COT meeting. Key aspects of the financial results for the year include:

- Operating revenues declined by about $5 million due to enrollment declines.
- Operating expenses were lower by $4.7 million.
- Net nonoperating revenues increased by about $1 million.
- Overall, Lock Haven’s net position decreased by a modest ($389,000).
- LHU’s cash balance remained solid at $62.5 million, but is down $4.2 million from the previous year end.

With Dr. Wilson’s move to the Office of the Chancellor, I am now currently serving as Co-Chair of the Middle States Self-Study Steering Committee with Dr. Cori Myers. In that capacity, I will be providing updates on the progress of the self-study to the COT each quarter. The self-study will be structured around the seven standards for accreditation. There is a working group assigned to each of the seven standards and they are meeting regularly during the fall semester to review and document Lock Haven’s compliance with the standard, to gather evidence of compliance, and to document any compliance or documentation gaps, if applicable. Closing of any compliance gaps will be monitored by the Steering Committee co-chairs. An eighth working group is assigned to verifying that we are in compliance with the Requirements of Affiliation, including federal laws and regulations (e.g., Title IV and the Higher Education Act).

- PASSHE Common Student Information System: Several of the IT Department staff have been involved in the PASSHE system redesign effort, specifically the exploration of a common Student Information System. At the direction of the Chancellor, this project is moving forward and will go through a competitive RFP process, with an expected implementation start in October 2020. Lock Haven IT staff as well a staff from several other functional areas will be engaged in the design and implementation of the Common SIS.

- Online Bookstore and First Day Access: The IT Department continues efforts to refine the online bookstore and first-day/inclusive access programs. There will be a slight change in direction for the Spring 2020 term that we expect will make the process function more smoothly.

- Centralized Computer Systems Upgrade: Two of our central servers used for the virtualized desktop environment were upgraded to the latest generation hardware. Additionally, all employee virtualized desktops have been enabled to use centralized GPU functionality, greatly improving the performance and user experience.

- Campus Wireless Systems Update: The current campus WiFi infrastructure is nearing the end of its functional life and needs to be upgraded to the latest hardware and software. The IT Department is currently exploring technologies from various manufacturers and expects to engage in an RFP process near the beginning of the calendar year. Additionally, the IT Department, in cooperation with other campus offices, is exploring managed solutions for our residential wireless networks to increase the service level in our residential facilities.

- Departmental Relocation: IT Department staff are working with members of the Facilities Department and others on campus to facilitate the move of the department from Robinson Learning Center to other space on campus. This move is to enable the major renovation work that will be happening in Robinson Hall.

- The Lock Haven SBDC raised and secured $57,500 in contribution commitments from area banks for the Department of Community and Economic Development’s Neighborhood Assistance Program, submitted by the Lock Haven University Foundation, in partnership with the SBDC and Downtown Lock Haven. The proposal amount was for $50,000 for FY 2019/20 to support the Launch From The Haven (LFTH) initiative. LFTH will target nascent low-income entrepreneurs residing with the City of Lock Haven commercial business district who are identified as having high potential of being successful entrepreneurs. The LFTH program addresses the problem of the low rate of business startups from low-income individuals and the slow rate of growth among existing low-income business owners in the City. The purpose of this program is to begin to lay the foundation for an entrepreneurial ecosystem in the City of Lock Haven, focusing initially on the commercial business district within the downtown area while serving the low-income individuals with entrepreneurial training, education and consulting. In addition, this program will serve as a catalyst for an eventual anticipated Neighborhood Partnership Program request to be submitted a year from now. As entrepreneurial programs and resources are being built out over the next year, community partners will continue to be engaged in preparation for the Year 2 proposal focused on the development of a strategic plan that will improve the quality of life for the residents of the City of Lock Haven through economic and workforce development programming. The proposed award determination should be communicated by DCED in the very near future.

- During the 3rd Quarter of 2019, the SBDC director assisted the feasibility consultants from Axcel Innovations with identifying numerous entrepreneurs, small business owners, economic development representatives, elected officials and university faculty and administrators, for the purpose of conducting interviews to help determine the demand for an incubator resource in Lock Haven. The next step for the incubator feasibility study is to visit potential locations within the City of Lock Haven and/or in or adjacent to the LHU campus. Upon completion of that review of physical sites, the consultants will compile a final report to be presented to University leadership by the end of the 2019.

- The Lock Haven SBDC attended the Pennsylvania SBDC’s Performance Success Celebration on October 23rd at Kutztown University, and was recognized as one of the 11 Centers in the Network to receive the Center Performance Award. The award was in recognition of the Center’s achievement in meeting all five SBA goals for FY 2019. Specifically, the Lock Haven SBDC served 232 clients who supported over 1,400 jobs and assisted with the start-up or acquisition of 16 new businesses, and secured in excess of $8.6 Million in capital for their business start-up or expansion projects during the fiscal year.

Report of the Vice President for Enrollment Management and Students Affairs to the Council of Trustees for the November 22, 2019 Meeting.

Application processing for fall 2020 undergraduate and graduate students has been in operation for over a month. Application processing is now occurring in Slate (CRM), which has streamlined processing and improved efficiency. As an additional enhancement, unofficial transcripts and test scores are being used to render admissions decisions. This change expedites review of the application materials and reduces the time that an application is in review.
